

Course Evaluation*

- Class Participation
- Reflections
- Group Project
- Final Project

*The following is a guideline, but not definitive, of what assignments will be in this course. I am open to writing as a class whatever we engage with in our new content we read. This will be your wish to be of our personal life. I hope to have a good time. I will be glad to discuss our first session. I will be glad to see you. I look forward to learning from you. I will be glad to see you. I will be glad to see you. I will be glad to see you.
