

BRIGHT LIGHTS BRIGHT CITY

The Development and Influence of the Ancient Metropolis

The Graduate Group in Archaeology, Classics and History of Art at Bryn Mawr College presents its 10th Biennial Symposium

November 13–14, 2015

Keynote Address

Barnard College, Columbia University
Psychogeography and the Ancient Metropolis

Friday, 4:30pm

Carpenter B21

Symposium

Saturday, 9:00am–6:00pm
Carpenter B21

This year's symposium is sponsored by the Graduate Group in Archaeology, Classics and History of Art, the 1902 Lecture Fund, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the Friends of the Library, the Department of Classical & Near Eastern Archaeology, the Department of Greek, Latin, & Classical Studies, and the Department of History of Art.

Full conference details available at: www.BrightLightsCity.org or brynmawr.edu